Tout public. Respectée, souvent adulée, Elizabeth II règne sur le temps. Si la souveraine est la femme la plus célèbre du monde, elle reste pourtant largement secrète et méconnue. Depuis 1952, elle a toujours étonné ses contemporains, évoluant avec son époque tout en restant la même afin de préserver la monarchie dont elle est l'héritière et la garante. Elle incarne un univers qui serait impensable sans elle, sans ses inévitables chapeaux, son sourire de rigueur et sa discrète façon de battre la mesure de son pied droit lorsqu'une fanfare défile devant elle. Agée de 92 ans, celle que rien ne prédestinait à monter sur le trône connaît aujourd'hui le plus long règne de la monarchie britannique. Puisant aux meilleures sources, Jean des Cars nous plonge dans la vie d'Elizabeth II, de son enfance à son accession au trône en passant par tous les petits et grands épisodes, publics et privés, qui ont marqué sa vie : guerre mondiale, mort de son père, rumeurs sur son couple, vie dissolue de sa soeur, problèmes conjugaux de ses enfants, relation avec son oncle damné, sans oublier sa passion pour ses corgies et ses chevaux... Le maître des cours européennes nous invite dans l'intimité de "The Queen".
